Why Attend?

Harnessing Economic Potential:

Africa is projected to have a combined GDP of $29 trillion by 2050. Now is the time to capitalize on this potential through strategic partnerships and investments.

Building Partnerships:

The US is one of Africa's largest trading partners, with trade between the two exceeding $60 billion annually. This forum will explore ways to enhance this relationship.

Networking Opportunities:

Connect with key figures, including African Ambassadors, US policymakers, industry leaders, and entrepreneurs. Build relationships that can lead to impactful collaborations.

Key Objectives

Foster a Cohesive African Ambassadors' Bloc:

Enhance the collective impact on US policies to promote Africa's growth, stability, and development.

Leverage Opportunities:

Identify pathways for sustainable trade and investment that benefit both African nations and the US.

Promote Peace and Stability:

Engage in discussions that address conflict resolution and foster a peaceful environment for economic growth.

Actionable Outcomes

By the end of the forum, we aim to achieve:

- 1 Establishment of a cohesive African US Ambassadors' bloc with an executive secretary to coordinate efforts.
- 2 Creation of a communication channel between African US Ambassadors and key Diaspora organizational leaders.
- 3 Formation of an African Diaspora think tank to collaborate with AU Ambassadors.
- 4 Establishment of an African trade union coalition in the US for an annual African trade fair.
- 5 Creation of a Legislative Engagement Committee to advocate for Africa's interests in US policy-making.

Statistics That Matter

Trade Growth:

US-Africa trade grew by 7.5% in the last year alone, signaling the importance of strengthening these ties.

Investment Potential:

Over $50 billion of foreign direct investment (FDI) is expected to flow into Africa by 2025, creating millions of jobs.

Youth Demographic:

By 2030, Africa will be home to over 1 billion young people, making it essential to invest in their future now.

Be Part of the Change

Join us at the Africa Ambassadors Economic Forum to play a vital role in shaping a prosperous future for Africa. Together, we can amplify Africa's voice in US policy-making and create lasting partnerships that benefit both continents.
